Bed and Breakfast Description

LanierBB.com
Inn of the Year 2008

Centrally located, yet a world apart, Devonfield Inn is set on a 32 acre pastoral meadow shaded by graceful birch trees, with the rolling tapestry of the Berkshire Hills beyond. This 200 year old historic estate home has been graciously updated and is filled with fine antiques. It is sophisticated, yet comfortable and inviting.

Devonfield's upscale guest accommodations are all beautifully appointed, spacious and offer modern private baths. Quilts, down comforters, plush sheets, towels, CD players and TV/VCRS enhance every room along with handmade chocolates and bottled water. Many have wood-burning fireplaces, whirlpool tubs and fine terry robes.

For your comfort, the Inn is completely air conditioned and provides wireless Internet.

The guest pantry is always open and is stocked with fresh baked cookies, coffee, tea, hot chocolate, popcorn and other seasonal treats. A full-sized refrigerator and a microwave are available should you choose to bring any special refreshments.

A fireside (fall and winter) candlelit gourmet breakfast is served on fine china accompanied by classical music. Breakfast includes a bountiful buffet of fresh baked goods, fruits, granola, yogurt, juices and more, followed by a specially selected hot entree served tableside each day.

Follow breakfast with a stroll through the flower-filled gardens, play a round of tennis, or take a dip in the heated pool, and then enjoy the best in cultural and recreational activities in all seasons.

"One of the most beautiful, quaint, well run Inns I have ever stayed at. We were shown to a magnificently decorated room with a beautiful fireplace looking out over acres of beautiful green space and forest."

- Michael Aller, Miami Beach

"The Devonfield Inn is absolutely wonderful!! The Inn is situated on a picturesque setting. Ronnie and Bruce are very friendly and so accommodating. They go above and beyond for their guests. The house has a very warm feeling."
- vsnascar, CT.

The Berkshires' cultural attractions offer surprising treasures for such a rural area. Recreational opportunities abound too, and include downhill and cross-country skiing, hiking, biking, whitewater rafting, fishing and golf. Be sure to make time for shopping and antiquing.

If you like trains, start your day at the Berkshire Scenic Railway and Museum for short trips in vintage cars. Or take a tranquil walk or hike along the many trails of the Massachusetts Audubon's Pleasant Valley Sanctuary, filled with wildlife and natural beauty.

Take a short drive to Lee for a great lunch and every specialty and outlet shopping experience you can imagine. Later, pamper yourself at one of the elegant Berkshire spas. Golf at Greenoch or Cranwell. Dinner in Lenox or Lee is an experience in itself, or pack your own dinner and picnic on the grounds of The Mount, Edith Wharton's home from 1902 to 1911. Devonfield is only minutes away from Tanglewood, Norman Rockwell, Jacobs Pillow, Shakespeare & Co., antiquing and shopping.
